The Sugar Market.

A New York letter of June 27 says of "The market is strong at 4 11-16c.; and price of refinery again advanced 10 points yesterday, which gives a margin now between raw and refined of say 91c per hundred lbs."

New York, July 9,-Sugar, raw strong and held higher; refined, strong San Francisco, July 10.-Another sharp advance for all qualities of su gar was effective yesterday.

The employes of the Honolulu Iron Works met at the noon hour today and decided to raise a subscription for the widow and children of Emil Uhlbrecht. the young man drowned at Makapu Point Sunday. George Barker was appointed a committee of one to solicit on the outside. The men themselves will make up a handsome purse.

Two reporters from the Advertiser, anxious to get the news, went out to the Nippon Maru early this morning. As soon as the steamer hauled alongside the Pacific Mail wharf, the young men sought to land but the Custon House officers said, "Nay, nay," and they were forced to remain aboard the steamer until all the passengers had been examined. This was close to 6:30 o'clock.

Collector of Customs, E. R. Stackable, has sent notice to all the news papers, calling attention to the law regarding communication of any kind with any foreign steamer entering the port. The long and short of the whole thing is that no newspaper man or anyone except the authorities can go out in the pilot boat nor can newspapers be obtained until the Custom House officers have finished their work aboard. The fine for violating this law is a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment for not more than two

Holding Two Offices.

Wray Taylor says he would be only too giad to give up the office of Registrar of Election in favor of any com petent man who would accept the salary of $50 a month. The duties were formerly performed by the Chief Clerk of the Interior. Mr. Taylor has not Agriculture. Having a thorough heretofore drawn the salary, nor does he draw it now. The law does not permit it to be paid to him in addition to his salary as Commissioner of knowledge of registration, however, he continues to do the service at the earnest desire of the executive.

Troops at Tien Tsin . See Heavy Pighting

Tsin are having an exceedingly untillery opened at dawn. Their fire was nore accurate and their ammunition better, the shells exploding with precision and setting fire to several build ings. Her majesty's steamship Terrible's guns again quieted the Chinese who, shifting their artillery, reopened the attack in the afternoon, but a thunderstorm breaking, the Chinese sud denly quit. The allies immediately attacked and drove the Chinese from their works, but lost thirty killed and wounded in so doing. The noncom July 19-MR. BARNES OF NEW YORK batants are leaving Tien Tsin, and the opinion of a minority favors the military leaving also.

Other dispatches record severe fight ing, notably on July 2d and July 3d when the Chinese developed great strength and did considerable damage with artillery.
